TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Often, when a family keeps vigil around a person who is preparing for death, they may notice three interwoven activities. First, the dying person may become more prayerful and reflective than ever before, reviewing life's journey in gratitude to God, or seeking forgiveness and making amends for wrongs. Second, as death approaches, the need to eat and drink is lessened until even an ice cube brushed against the lips is satisfying. Third, persons who are dying often make plans to give their possessions away, making bequests, handing treasures down, providing for favorite charities.

Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving: with these three “pillars” of Lent, we rehearse our death every year in this season, and anticipate the final work we will do in this life. And every year, at the end of our journey, is the joy of Easter and the experience of the victory of Christ over death's darkness and power. Annually, we remind ourselves that the Christian experiences the same power and presence at the end of life's journey: Christ to the rescue and the lasting joy of heaven.

Notes from the Pastor

Sunday, March 10 is the First Sunday of Lent.

Thursday, March 14: Holy Mass at 5:30 p.m.; Stations of the Cross at 6:00 p.m.; Soup Supper at 6:30 p.m. at Sts. Philip & James Parish in Phillipsburg.

Friday, March 15: Holy Mass at 5:30 p.m. Stations of the Cross at 6:00 p.m. at St. John's Parish in Logan.

All Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

Fast and Abstinence for Lent:

- A. Every one 14 yrs of age and older is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent including Good Friday.

- B. Every one 18 yrs. of age or older and under 60 yrs. of age is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

- C. On these two days of Fast and Abstinence only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal one full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, liquids, including milk and fruit juice are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.

- D. To disregard completely the law of Fast and Abstinence is a serious matter.

- E. Going to Mass every Sunday and if possible attending weekday Mass, doing acts of charity, forgiveness, and good deeds of virtue are obligations of daily life of Catholics especially during Lent.

Rosary Intention for the Month of March

Prayer for First Communicants of the Parishes

Lord Jesus Christ, in the Sacrament of the Eucharist, You left us the outstanding manifestation of your limitless love for us. Thank you for giving the children of our parishes the opportunity to experience this love in receiving the Sacrament for the first time. May your Eucharistic presence keep them ever free from sin, fortified in faith, pervaded by love for God and neighbor, and fruitful in virtue. May they continue to receive You throughout life and attain final union with You at death. In Your name we pray. Amen.

ALMSGIVING, PRAYER, FASTING, AND TEMPTATION

As we begin our season of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving, the reading from Deuteronomy reminds us of our duty of almsgiving, that we "set [our offerings] before the Lord, [our] God, [and] shall bow down in [God's] presence" (Deuteronomy 26:10). The reading from Romans refers us to our prayer, reminding us that "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart . . . For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved" (Romans 10:8, 13). These are comforting words, and encourage us to ask God for what we need and to aid us in our prayer. Finally, the Gospel of Luke shows us a fasting Jesus, who was tempted as we are, and who knows what it means to be human. Someone once said that temptation arises when you're tired and weary, and the devil comes along and makes a perfectly reasonable suggestion. Jesus shows us that, with his help, we too can overcome our temptations, reasonable as they may sound.
