TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's high summer now, school is out, the pace of work slows, and some people drift away. There are visitors in the churches every summer, and familiar faces are “among the missing.” Some find the summer's call more appealing than the summons of the church bells. Many, however, would not dream of missing a Sunday, and so they make their way to Mass in unfamiliar places, watching the locals for clues as to when to sit or stand, where the Communion stations are. In answering the call, they keep the “sabbatical” rhythm of the Christian life: every seventh day, the Body of Christ assembles for worship.

For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshiping together on Sundays. They responded, “Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live.” By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situated us in community, and evoked a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society's life.

GOD'S PROVIDENCE

Today's readings celebrate God's providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does.

Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us “as a mother comforts her child.” The prophet describes us not as the usual “children of God,” but as “babies.” We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God's care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.

Saint Paul's trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can “make troubles” for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

A woman was healed of her hemorrhage simply by touching the hem of Jesus' cloak. (Matthew 9:20-22).

Divine Mercy Radio is sponsoring a Treasures of the Church relics tour that will take place at 7 p.m., Thursday, Aug. 1 at St. Nicholas of Myra Church in Hays. The evening begins with a multi-media presentation in the church regarding the use of relics followed by veneration of the relics in the parish hall. Relics that are part of this exhibit include St. Maria Goretti, St. Thersea of Lisieux, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Faustina Kowalska. This tour is free, but a basket for a free-will offering for the Treasures of the Church ministry to continue will be available. For more information contact donetta@dvmercy.com

Rosary Intention for the Month of July

Prayer for Safe Travels for Fr. George

Heavenly Lord, You are the Way, the Truth, and the Life. While Fr. George is on his journey, may God the Father be with him, God the Son protect him, and God the Holy Spirit be by his side. Keep him free from harm to body and soul. Lord, support Fr. George with Your grace when he is tired. Keep him always mindful of Your presence and love. This we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.
